About Powerful Trainers

Powerful Trainers are people with learning difficulties who are trained, supported and paid to deliver training. We are based in Chichester and deliver training across Sussex.

We make a difference by delivering training to a variety of audiences, on attitudes and approaches towards people with learning difficulties by promoting equality, diversity and inclusion.

What we offer

Powerful Trainers use drama and real life experiences in the delivery of their training; our empowered trainers provide unique, individualised insights which bring a training event to life. Our work suits a variety of initiatives including:

- Promoting Equality and Diversity
- Developing Positive Attitudes
- Staff Selection
- Advocacy
- Anti-Bullying
- Promoting Social Inclusion
- Staff Inductions
- Support for parents and carers
- Overcoming barriers, diminishing negative attitudes
- Relationships
- Celebrating Difference

We will prepare a flexible training session with you, specific to your requirements and budget.

Our customers include local authorities, schools, colleges, universities, police, private businesses and social care providers.

Our training has been recognised – Winners of a National Training Award in the South East Region, 2004 and the Arun District Council Training and Development Award, 2008.

What do our customers say?

“Powerful Trainers opened my eyes and made me think about life differently”

“Training was of a high standard and produced the outcome we desired”

“Powerful Trainers had a huge impact on my team, and managed to shatter a few preconceptions”
